

Privacy Policy

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: September 7, 2026

J-P Construction LLC respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you provide to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, maintain, and disclose information when you visit our website, contact us, request an estimate, schedule an inspection, or use our roofing and construction services.

By using our website or providing information to us, you acknowledge the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

Information We Collect

We may collect information that you voluntarily provide when you contact us or request our services. This may include your name, telephone number, email address, mailing or property address, project information, photographs, information about your roofing or construction needs, and other information necessary to respond to your request or provide our services.

If you become a customer, we may also collect information necessary to perform and administer your project, including contract information, payment-related information, property information, communications, photographs, inspection information, warranty information, and documentation related to insurance claims when voluntarily provided by you.

We may also automatically collect certain technical information when you visit our website. This may include your IP address, browser type, device information, pages visited, approximate location information, referring website, and information regarding how you interact with our website.

How We Use Your Information

We may use personal information to respond to inquiries, schedule inspections, prepare estimates, communicate with customers, provide roofing and construction services, process payments, administer warranties, maintain customer records, improve our website and services, measure advertising performance, prevent fraud or misuse, and comply with applicable law.

If you provide information relating to an insurance claim, we may use that information to prepare estimates, document property conditions, communicate with you regarding your project, and provide information or documentation to your insurance company or other parties at your direction or as reasonably necessary to provide requested services.

Advertising and Marketing

We may use third-party advertising and marketing services to promote our roofing and construction services, reach potential customers, measure advertising performance, and understand how visitors interact with our website and advertisements.

These services may include Google Ads, Meta/Facebook Ads, or other advertising platforms. These providers may use cookies, pixels, tags, or similar technologies.

Advertising providers may collect information such as browser information, device information, IP address, pages visited, and interactions with advertisements. This information may be used to measure advertising effectiveness and help us reach audiences that may be interested in our services.

We do not intend to sell personal information directly to advertising companies for monetary compensation. However, certain advertising-related data practices may be considered a "sale" or "sharing" of personal data under applicable privacy laws. Where required by law, we will provide applicable notices and opt-out mechanisms.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

Our website may use cookies, pixels, web beacons, tags, analytics tools, and similar technologies to operate the website, remember preferences, understand website traffic, measure advertising performance, improve website functionality, and support marketing efforts.

Third-party analytics and advertising providers may also use these technologies in connection with our website.

You may be able to control certain cookies through your browser settings or other available privacy controls. Disabling cookies may affect certain website functionality.

Information Sharing

We may share personal information when reasonably necessary to operate our business or provide requested services. Categories of third parties may include contractors and subcontractors, material suppliers, manufacturers, payment processors, website and technology providers, analytics providers, advertising and marketing providers, insurance-related parties when authorized or necessary, professional advisors, and governmental or legal authorities when required by law.

We do not intend to share more information than reasonably necessary for the applicable business purpose.

Marketing Communications

If you voluntarily provide your contact information, we may contact you regarding your inquiry, estimate, inspection, appointment, project, warranty, or other requested services.

Where permitted by law, we may also send information regarding our services, promotions, or other company communications. You may request that we stop sending non-essential marketing communications.

Text Messages and Telephone Communications

If you provide your telephone number and request information or services from us, we may contact you by telephone or text message regarding your inquiry, estimate, inspection, appointment, project, or other requested services.

Message and data rates may apply depending on your mobile carrier. You may request that we stop non-essential text communications at any time.

Data Security

We maintain reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

No method of transmitting or storing information electronically can be guaranteed to be completely secure. Our security practices are intended to be appropriate to the nature and volume of the information we maintain. Iowa law requires covered businesses to maintain reasonable data-security practices.

Data Retention

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide services, maintain project and warranty records, satisfy legal and accounting obligations, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, and fulfill the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

Iowa Consumer Privacy Rights

Subject to applicable exceptions and limitations under Iowa law, eligible Iowa consumers may have rights concerning their personal data, including the right to:

- Confirm whether personal data is being processed;
- Access certain personal data;
- Request deletion of certain personal data;
- Obtain a portable copy of certain personal data; and
- Opt out of the sale of personal data.

Iowa law also provides additional protections concerning certain sensitive data and prohibits discrimination for exercising applicable consumer privacy rights.

To submit a privacy request, contact us using the information below. We may take reasonable steps to verify your identity before completing a request.

Iowa law generally requires a response to an authenticated consumer request within 90 days, subject to applicable extensions and exceptions.

Privacy Request Appeals

If we decline to take action on a qualifying privacy request, you may appeal the decision by contacting us using the same contact information provided for privacy requests.

We will review qualifying appeals in accordance with applicable Iowa law and provide a written response within the time required by law. Iowa law provides an appeal process and, if an appeal is denied, an online mechanism for contacting the Iowa Attorney General.

Children's Privacy

Our website and services are not directed toward children under 18. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 18 through our website.

Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites, social media platforms, manufacturers, payment services, insurance resources, advertising platforms, or other external websites.

We are not responsible for the privacy practices, security, or content of third-party websites. We encourage visitors to review the privacy policies of third-party websites before providing personal information.

Data Breach

If we experience a security breach involving personal information that triggers notification requirements under applicable Iowa law, we will provide notifications as required by law.

Iowa's breach-notification law generally requires notification to affected consumers following discovery of a qualifying security breach, subject to applicable exceptions and law-enforcement considerations.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes to our business, website, advertising practices, technology, or applicable law.

When changes are made, the Effective Date at the beginning of this Privacy Policy will be updated.

Cookie Policy

Effective Date: September 7, 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how J-P Construction LLC uses cookies and similar technologies on our website.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. Cookies allow websites to recognize a device, remember certain information, improve functionality, and understand how visitors interact with the website.

How We Use Cookies

We may use cookies and similar technologies for several purposes, including:

Essential Cookies: These may be necessary for the website to function properly and may support security, forms, navigation, and basic website functionality.

Analytics Cookies: These may help us understand how visitors use our website, which pages are visited, and how we can improve the website.

Advertising Cookies: We may use advertising technologies to measure advertising performance, understand how visitors interact with advertisements, and help us market our roofing and construction services.

Functional Cookies: These may allow the website to remember preferences and provide enhanced functionality.

Third-Party Technologies

We may use third-party services such as Google Analytics, Google Ads, Meta/Facebook advertising tools, or other analytics and advertising services.

These services may use cookies, pixels, tags, or similar technologies to collect information about website visits and interactions.

Third-party providers may have their own privacy policies governing how they collect and use information.

Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow you to control or delete cookies through browser settings. You may also have access to additional privacy controls provided by your browser, device, or applicable third-party services.

Please be aware that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

Advertising Choices

If we use targeted advertising technologies that are subject to applicable opt-out requirements, we will provide appropriate mechanisms for consumers to exercise those choices.

Because our advertising and technology partners may change over time, the specific tools used on our website may also change.

Updates to This Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy when we change the technologies used on our website or when applicable laws or industry practices change.

The Effective Date at the beginning of this policy will be updated when material changes are made.

Terms & Conditions

Effective Date: September 7, 2026

Welcome to the website of J-P Construction LLC. By accessing or using this website, you agree to the following Terms & Conditions.

These Terms & Conditions govern your use of our website and do not replace or modify the terms of a separate written construction contract, proposal, estimate, warranty, or other agreement between you and our company.

Website Use

You may use this website for lawful purposes and to learn about our roofing and construction services.

You agree not to misuse the website, attempt to gain unauthorized access to website systems, interfere with website functionality, introduce malicious software, or use website content for unlawful purposes.

Information on This Website

We make reasonable efforts to provide accurate and current information. However, website content is provided for general informational purposes and may not always reflect the most current pricing, materials, availability, services, or project conditions.

Website information does not constitute a binding offer to perform construction services.

A binding obligation to perform work will arise only through an applicable written agreement or contract authorized by the company.

Estimates and Pricing

Any estimate, price range, or project information presented on this website is for general informational purposes unless specifically identified as a formal written proposal.

Actual project pricing may depend on property conditions, measurements, materials, labor, accessibility, permits, weather, code requirements, concealed damage, and other circumstances discovered during inspection or construction.

Final pricing will be governed by the applicable written proposal or contract.

Roofing Inspections

Roof inspections are based on conditions reasonably observable at the time of inspection.

Certain damage, defects, structural conditions, moisture intrusion, or other problems may not be visible without additional investigation or removal of materials.

An inspection does not guarantee that every existing or future roofing or construction problem will be identified.

Storm Damage and Insurance Claims

We may provide photographs, measurements, estimates, and other documentation concerning observed property conditions.

However, J-P Construction LLC does not determine insurance coverage or guarantee that an insurance claim will be approved or paid.

Coverage decisions are made by the customer's insurance carrier according to the customer's insurance policy.

Customers remain responsible for understanding their insurance policy and communicating with their insurance provider.

Construction Conditions and Change Orders

Construction and roofing projects may reveal conditions that could not reasonably be identified before work began.

Additional work outside the original scope may require additional authorization, a change order, or an adjustment to the project price.

Any applicable changes will be addressed in accordance with the customer's written contract.

Materials

Materials may vary based on manufacturer availability, product discontinuation, weather conditions, code requirements, supply-chain conditions, or other circumstances.

When substitutions are necessary, we will make reasonable efforts to provide materials of appropriate quality and suitability, subject to the applicable contract.

Workmanship and Warranties

Our workmanship warranties, if any, are governed by the applicable written contract or warranty documentation.

Manufacturer warranties are provided by the applicable manufacturer and are subject to the manufacturer's terms, limitations, exclusions, and requirements.

Nothing on this website creates a warranty that is not expressly provided in a written agreement.

Payments

Customers are responsible for making payments according to the payment schedule established in their written agreement.

Failure to make required payments may result in project delays, suspension of work, or other remedies permitted by the applicable agreement and law.

Project Scheduling

Project schedules are estimates and may be affected by weather, material availability, permitting, inspections, labor availability, unforeseen property conditions, and circumstances outside our reasonable control.

We will make reasonable efforts to communicate material scheduling changes to customers.

Photographs and Project Examples

Photographs displayed on this website may represent completed or ongoing projects and are intended to demonstrate the types of work we perform.

Actual project results may vary depending on property conditions, materials, design, weather, and other factors.

Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise stated, website content, including logos, text, graphics, photographs, designs, and other materials, belongs to or is licensed to J-P Construction LLC and may not be reproduced, modified, distributed, or used commercially without permission.

Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites.

We do not control or guarantee the content, availability, security, or accuracy of third-party websites and are not responsible for their practices.

Limitation of Website Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, J-P Construction LLC is not responsible for losses resulting solely from reliance on general information contained on this website.

Nothing in these Terms & Conditions is intended to waive or limit rights, warranties, remedies, or protections that cannot legally be waived or limited.

Force Majeure

We will not be responsible for delays caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including severe weather, natural disasters, governmental actions, material shortages, transportation delays, manufacturer delays, labor disruptions, or other circumstances beyond our reasonable control.

Governing Law

These Terms & Conditions shall be interpreted under the laws of the State of Iowa, except where applicable law requires otherwise.

Any construction dispute will be governed by the applicable written construction agreement and applicable Iowa law.

Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms & Conditions from time to time.

Updated terms will be posted on this website and will become effective when posted unless otherwise stated.

Accessibility Statement

Effective Date: September 7, 2026

J-P Construction LLC is committed to providing a website that is accessible and usable by as many people as reasonably possible, including individuals with disabilities.

We strive to provide equal access to information about our roofing and construction services and to continually improve the accessibility and usability of our website.

Accessibility Standards

We are working to make our website conform, where reasonably practicable, with generally recognized accessibility standards, including the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA.

Our goal is to make it easier for visitors to navigate our website, access information, contact our company, submit inquiries, and learn about our services regardless of the technology or assistive device they use.

Ongoing Improvements

Website accessibility is an ongoing process. We regularly review our website and make reasonable efforts to identify and address accessibility barriers.

Because websites and technologies continually change, some portions of our website or third-party content may not always be fully accessible.

We welcome feedback that can help us improve.

Accessibility Assistance

If you experience difficulty accessing information, forms, images, documents, or other content on our website because of a disability, please contact us.

We will make reasonable efforts to provide the requested information or assistance through an alternative method.

When contacting us, please identify the webpage or feature you are having difficulty accessing and describe the problem if possible.

Equal Access

We are committed to providing customers and visitors with equal access to our services and to treating individuals with disabilities fairly and respectfully.

Nothing in this Accessibility Statement is intended to waive or limit any rights or protections provided under applicable federal or Iowa law.
